Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, it is unclear if the applicant is positively claiming the baked good in combination with the decorative holder article.

In claim 3, it is unclear if the "one or more decorative accessories" is the same as the "decorative accessory" recited in claim 1.

In claim 3, the applicant recites an improper Markush grouping. The examiner will consider favorably the phrase "said decorative accessory is selected from the group consisting of trinkets, gifts, soaps, bath salts, jewelry, chocolates, nuts, and mints".

Drawings

3. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims.

Therefore, the decorative accessory, gift items, trinkets, gifts, soaps, bath salts, jewelry, chocolates, nuts, and mints must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by “Merry Cookies; sample the latest batch of winning recipes in CNY’s annual holiday contest”, THE POST STANDARD, December 9, 1998.

6. The Merry Cookies article teaches a decorative holder for cookies comprising a stack of cookies wrapped with plastic wrap and tied with a pretty ribbon. The stack of cookies also has a laminated card tied thereon. The examiner considers the cookies to correspond to the claimed baked goods, the plastic wrap to correspond to the claimed sheet of decorative material, and the card to correspond to the decorative accessory affixed to the ribbon.

7. With respect to claims 4, the card corresponds to the trinket.

8. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by "The bear Basics of Gift Wrapping", Floridian, December 16, 1997.

The Bear Basics article teaches a decorative holder for a bear comprising a bear wrapped with wrap in a bag and tied with a plastic raffia-style ribbon. Adding a cookie cutter decoration that double as a gift tag and an ornament that hints at what's inside the box. The examiner the bag wrap to correspond to the claimed sheet of decorative material, and the cookie cutter to correspond to the decorative accessory affixed to the ribbon. In addition, the examiner considers the ornament to correspond to the gift items.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Sevine, U. S. Patent 628,859 is cited to show baked good/bread wrapped in paper and tied with a cord and a card.

10. Canine Carob Cupcakes is cited to show baked goods wrapped in decorative material with a card and ribbon. Packing Homemade Goodies as Holiday Gifts is cited to show cookies in a cup and wrapped with decorative material and tied with a ribbons.
